About the WR&SETA

The Wholesale and Retail Sector Education and Training was established in 2000 in terms of the Skills Development Act to facilitate skills development in one of the top economic sectors of South Africa - wholesale and retail. The W&RSETA is responsible for developing qualifications, implementing learning programmes, business support for small companies and providing access to the workplace through training programmes.

SETAs are entities of the Department of Higher Education and Training. There are 21 SETAs; each servicing a specific economic sector of the country.

W&RSETA Online Career Guidance Toolkit

The W&RSETA has created an Online Career Guidance Toolkit for anyone interested in the Wholesale and Retail Sector, making it easier to plan for your success in the industry. The toolkit is ideal for career planning, matching with opportunities such as bursaries, employment, learnerships, Internships and employment. Access over 200+ careers within wholesale and retail.

The toolkit has its own calendar that will help you to set one on one appointments with Career guidance professionals from W&RSETA.
